DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 are allowed. Applicant's remarks regarding unexpected results, submitted June 24, 2004 have been considered. Taking the second argument first, the purported difference between "slight increase in anticoagulant activity" (Millet) and "[no] significant modification of APTT or TCT time" (emphasis added) without more data is not persuasive. However, the first argument, wherein Applicant notes the significant differences in ED<sub>80</sub> dosages, is persuasive. This difference in dosages would constitute unexpected results.
